

Expand Your Political Knowledge with the Campbell County Democrats' Free Little Library

The Campbell County Democrats have launched a Free Little Library, a community resource filled with books donated by fellow Democrats. This library focuses on political topics, offering a wide range of titles to help expand your understanding of how politics works in the United States and beyond.

We welcome you to donate books that you find relevant and would like to share with other Democrats. To participate, bring your book donations to our monthly meeting, held every third Thursday of the month. You can also pick up a book to read. We kindly ask that you return books once you are finished so that others can enjoy them.
